

Leah Amundson

July 14, 1932 - August 12, 2013

Leah Amundson Leah Amundson was born the daughter of Conrad and Anna (Baker) Brill on Thursday, July 14, 1932 in Saginaw, Michigan. Leah grew up and attended the local schools in Portland after her family moved to Oregon in 1943. In 1955 Leah married Ernest Amundson and they made their home in Portland. Ernest preceded her in death in March of 2009. Leah worked as a baker for the Willamette Lutheran home in Salem for over twenty-three years until her retirement in 2004. Last year she suffered a stroke and came to live with her daughter in Dundee. She enjoyed traveling to the casino and playing poker. Leah loved children and took joy in spending time with them. She was a loving mother and always put others ahead of herself. On Monday, August 12, 2013, Leah Amundson died at a local hospital when she was eighty-one years, zero months and twenty-nine days of age. Surviving and left to honor her life are: Her son Ernie Amundson; her daughter Kari Horn; three sisters, Lydia Strubel, Sherley Marl and Linda Stripling; her brother Carl Brill; two grandchildren, Joshawah and Holly Newton and Iris Horn and those who have come to know and appreciate her where she has lived and worked. She was preceded in death by two brothers, Adam and George Brill and two sisters Kitty Arney and Marie Brill. Her Funeral Service will be Saturday, August 17, 2013 at 4:00 p.m. in Northside Community Church, Newberg, with Pastor Greg Fair officiating. A Private Committal will be held at Valley View Memorial Park, Newberg. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home.
