

Lois Mae Welton

May 19, 1923 - April 1, 2013

Lois Mae Welton Lois Mae Welton of Newberg passed away on April 1, 2013 at the age of 89. A Service celebrating her life will be held at Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel on Saturday, April 6, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. Lois made friends with wherever she went. She loved chatting with neighbors and encouraging others. She loved flowers and gardening. Her love of nature caused her to obtain her Master Gardener certificate. She loved books and travel and had an insatiable appetite for the written word. She loved her family and above all she loved her God. She will be greatly missed by her five children; ten grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. Arrangements are in the care of Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home. Online condolences may be made at www.attrells.com

“Grandma Lois”....I will always remember her for her sweetness, joy and happiness for life. I will never forget the time that we all went to do the chicken dance at her assisted living home. Such fun we had. I am grateful for the times that we were able to see her at Christmas time and especially this past year when Jake played the trombone for her and Tyler and Zachary, Kristen, Ryan, Jennifer, Jim and I sang Christmas carols to her. The joy she had watching us. She was a woman of God and she is now up in heaven planting a garden for God. We will miss her. Shirley

“ Hi, we are Jon and Liz Dante who lived next door to Lois in McMinnville on Morgan Lane. It's been over 30 years since we lived there, but we always have had fond memories of Lois. She was a kind neighbor, and she gave us ideas for our yard. I've had a chance to see her only a handful of times in the last 30 years, but she was always the same kind and upbeat person we remembered from when we lived there. I'm sure her children were proud to have her for their mother.
