

Loraine Kay Campbell

January 21, 1943 - July 24, 2023

On Monday, July 24, 2023 at 3:25am, Loraine Kay (Rockey) (Johnson) Campbell, loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother passed away at the age of 80 in Newberg, OR. She was born in Monte Vista, CO in January 1943 and grew up with her two brothers on the family potato farm (Rockey Farms) in Center, CO in the San Luis Valley. She graduated high school from Center Consolidated Schools Center, CO) and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business and Psychology at Adams State College in Alamosa, CO. She then married Michael J. Johnson in 1964 and moved to Florence, OR in 1968, where they raised their two children, Edward Johnson and Lodell (Johnson) Halvorson. She worked as a bookkeeper for their excavation and sanitation businesses (Siuslaw Sanitary Service) in Florence. After a divorce and sale of the businesses, she returned to Colorado in 1988 where she co-owned and ran a trucking company (Rocky Mountain Transportation) in Canon City, CO. In 2003, Loraine moved back to Oregon to be near her children and grandchildren.

Loraine was a lifetime member of the Order of Eastern Star, a Masonic fraternal organization that her parents Floyd & Vera Rocky were also involved in. She was initiated in 1961 into the Golden Grain Chapter #80 in Colorado and belonged to the following Oregon chapters: Newberg #55, Home Star #187, Laurel #113, Vesta #73, Tigard Orenomah #174, and Gervais #118. She served as Worthy Matron for several terms. She was also involved with White Shrine, Daughters of the Nile, Daughters of the American Revolution, and Soroptimist clubs. Throughout her life she enjoyed cooking, gardening, playing the piano and organ for various events, and spent numerous hours knitting, crocheting, working on assorted craft projects, or reading from her cherished collection of Reader's Digest Condensed Books. She was rarely without knitting needles in her hands and utilizing her large assortment of yarn and craft projects.

She is survived by her former spouse Michael J. Johnson, their children Edward (Julie) Johnson and Lodell (Allan) Halvorson. Her grandchildren, Tyler Johnson, Emerald (Cody) Lowry, Tiffanie (Shane) Hartman, Kyle (Emily) Halvorson, Tanner Johnson, Hailey (Jacob) Sutton, Tess Johnson, Carter Halvorson, and her great-granddaughters Ripley Hartman, and Eliana Halvorson (due 9/30/23). Loraine is also survived by her beloved Chihuahua King Arthur, her cousins, nieces, nephews, and other extended family. She is preceded in death by her parents, R. Floyd and Vera, and her brothers, Warren and Verlin Rockey.

A memorial service will be held at Attrell's Funeral Chapel in Newberg, OR on Friday, September 1st at 1:00pm.

A graveside service and interment of ashes will be held at a later date at the Monte Vista Cemetery in Monte Vista, CO where her cremains will be buried between her parents, as was her wish.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Loraine's name to the Order of Eastern Star, checks made out to: "Grand Chapter of Oregon".

Thank you to the staff at Brookdale Senior Living of Newberg, who poured out their love for our mother while caring for her, for setting up a memorial library in her name with her cherished book collection, and for making this process easier for her family.
