

Loretta Gay Hubbell

March 1, 1938 - September 19, 2022

Loretta Gay Hubbell was brought into this world on March 1, 1938 in Portland, OR by her parents Henry Fink and Marjorie Winters (Davidon). She spent her childhood in Dundee, OR and graduated from Newberg Union High in Newberg, OR where she met her husband of almost 60 years, Leroy Hubbell. She loved growing and showing her African violets so much so that she earned several first place, champion and grand champion ribbons at the Yamhill County and Oregon State Fair competitions. Her reputation with the violets were so well known that she was often asked to judge violet competitions that she was not entered in. While earlier in her adult life she worked for the board of higher education and OHSU in the accounting departments, she decided to stay home and raise her two children after her son, Raymond was born. She loved genealogy and the history of both her and her husband's family that she became a vital source in the genealogy community on the Hubbell family tree.

Loretta was preceded in death by her Husband Leroy and granddaughter Samantha. She is survived by her Son Raymond of Newberg, Daughter Barbara of Newberg, seven grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

“ My heart goes out to your beautiful family, as we all grew up together in Newberg. What a rich heritage with faithful friends for life eternal. You may “rest” while we await your return in paradise. When we have lost the best, we know exactly who we are getting back. The wait will be worth it ; as we patiently comfort one another, we are comforted. We can all rejoice when all members will be present for that big family reunion. Isaiah 26:19
