“ Marcie was a wonderful lady. We love her so very much. We only got to meet her about 15 years ago. We went to visit she and Uncle Dan and they opened up their home to us. THEY showed us around the area. Bless her heart she would not let us go out to eat she cooked every meal for us spoiled us with stesk and eggs for breakfast . We are so sad at her passing but God is receiving one of his sweetest angels ever. Our prayers are for the family. God bless youall. We truly loved her. Rest in Piece Marcie you will be Missed.
