She grew up in Plaistow, NH and attended St. James High School. Following high school, she attended McIntosh Business School.

The family moved to the Portland Oregon area in 1969. Edith had a career in electronics with Lewis Controls, Tektronics and InFocus. In retirement, Edith enjoyed playing golf, tending her flower garden, being an active member of the Republican Women’s group, and being devoted to her many furry dogs over the years - Ralphie, Bridget, and Quincy. She was a devout Catholic and was extremely involved in Stephen Ministry. She was a dedicated member of St. Anthony’s Catholic Church located in Tigard, OR.

Edith loved her annual trips to Florida in the Winter, where she shared many laughs with her siblings, Jimmy, Bonnie, Sandra and Tom over the years.
