Marilyn June (Scheffel) Freeman, passed away on Sept 2, 2017 at her home in Newberg, Oregon. She was dearly loved by her family who have supported her throughout her struggle with cancer over the last two years and faithfully cared for her up until the time of her passing. She was always so appreciative and ready to show a smile that lit up her face.

She graduated from Oregon School for the Deaf in 1984 and from Gallaudet University, Washington DC in 1990. On March 19, 1994 she married John Freeman, who survives. Marilyn was an avid reader and especially loved cookbooks. She enjoyed the beauty of nature and together she and John enjoyed camping. Her parents, Harry and Pauline (Stewart) Scheffel of Halsey preceded her in death. “ Saturday, Sept 2, was a very sad day for our family - but one that Marilyn longed for. One of her last signs of communication was "bye, I am leaving". She often wondered how it would be to die and I would say that I do not know. However, I, her sister Janet, assured her that she would be surrounded by God's love and the love of family. Last Saturday morning she experienced it and so did we. We loved you deeply Marilyn. Rest in Peace!
