“ What can i say about Mark. He was my best friend. We met in high school along with his brother Dave and were inseparable for years. He was my best man at my wedding. We had many adventures together. Along with having kids, our families were very tight. The Lobenstein family, (Joe and Shari)i hold in the highest regards. I always felt welcome and marveled at what felt like the all American family. Having come from a broken home, they set a standard that i tried to strive for in my life. Mark became a friend to me right when i needed one. Having moved across town to a new high school. I fell in with him and his friends and never looked back. We hadn't seen each much after his move to Oregon but we always talked and kept up on all the family stuff. He was always talking about his kids, sisters and parents new endeavors. He was proud of everyone, which was evident by the way he talked about them. He never let on how bad his health was, which i guess was him just being in moment when we talked. He was a selfless friend and I'm gonna miss him immensely. Love to everyone who knew him. Love you Mark. Thanks for all the great memories 😞

“ Mark was always an upbeat and happy person even through all his medical issues. Not much bothered him. He loved his family and was pretty proud of being a grandpa. He will be missed but not forgotten.
