

Marlene Ann White

March 12, 1935 - September 22, 2021

Marlene White was born on March 12, 1935 to Delbert and Florence Akers in Nezperce, Idaho. Her family came to live in Portland while she was a young child. This is where she met her husband, John White and was married July 31, 1955.

Marlene and John had two children while living in Bedford, Virginia. Vickie born May 2, 1957 and Rickie born May 14, 1958.

Marlene spent 22 years as an Air Force wife, following her husband, living in many different states. Marlene lived in Portland with Vickie and Rickie for a year twice, while John was over seas where the family could not follow.

Marlene's passion was her two children, several grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved them all.

Mom's second passion was making beautiful quilts. Mom and Shania had just bought material for yet another quilt and was in the middle of making this one together.

Mom also loved going to Disneyland and had made several trips with family over the years. One of the trips was with Vickie, Mary, Keanna, Austin, Shania, Makayla, and Raquel on a train for 32 hrs. one way. Christopher, Barbara, Alison, Gabby and Lane flew down and we all had a great time in Disneyland. Mom had also made a trip with Rick, Kelli and Keanna.

Mom passed March 22, 2021

"Mom you are loved so very much and will be deeply missed by all of us."
