

Mary Ellen Beach

July 24, 1941 - March 26, 2022

Mary Ellen Beach was born in Newberg, Oregon on July 24, 1941. The daughter of Marie Haggard and Kenneth Carsley. Mary grew up and attended school in Newberg. She married Bobby Gene Beach on June 11, 1966, in Newberg, Oregon. They had two children Jennifer and Michael. Mary had two brothers and two sisters (Donnie, Terry, Patricia, and Valerie). She enjoyed many things like camping with the family. Beverly beach state park was her favorite location, and the family would go every year usually with a big group of family members or members of her church. Baking (especially cakes) was one thing she would do on the side, and she made some of the best birthday and wedding cakes around. She has probably made most of the wedding cakes for our family and friends. For around 15 years Mary assisted with the Newberg Church of Christ VBS program. Prepping snack for the kids, mostly cookies and punch. Where the kids knew her as the cookie lady. Mary's favorite thing was any opportunity for a family gathering, especially Christmas eve. Which was always held at her home for 35 years. The menu never changed, roast and noodles. With Mary's health declining and the passing of her husband Bobby in 2014 she decided to pass this tradition to her two nieces that still continues to this day.

Mary is preceded in death by her husband Bobby in 2014 and her daughter Jennifer five month ago and her sister Patricia in 2011. She is survived by her son Michael, brothers Donnie and Terry and sister Valerie. Along with numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A celebration of life will be held at the Newberg Church of Christ (2503 Haworth Ave, Newberg Oregon) on Saturday April 9th at 2:00 pm. A reception will be held after the service to share memories and pictures. All are welcome to attend.

Please leave a message of condolence for the family.
