“ I belonged to the saddle club when I was young. Mel thought me many things about horsed, he traded horses with me one evening because my horse was green broke and I couldn't handle him very well Mel I got on his huge stallion, I felt like I was riding on top of a mountain. I learned a lot from him, he was a very caring person. He will be missed.

“ When I was 12, my family moved to Newberg. My dad took us to the saddle club. I was so impressed to meet a cowboy, Of course this was Mel. He was very friendly and showed his horse to us. Later as an adult he became one of my customers. Still friendly, we visited whenever he came in. I will miss him.
