

Michael Patrick McGarry

April 29, 1957 - January 15, 2018

Michael P. McGarry, resident of Lake Oswego, died unexpectedly Monday morning, January 15, 2018 at his residence. He was 60.

Michael "Iceman" McGarry was born April 29th, 1957 in Linn County, Oregon to Robert and Naomi McGarry. He served honorably in the U.S. Army During the Vietnam War. Later he began work for his Mother, Naomi McGarry, at AAA Appliance and eventually purchased the business. He has been a successful businessman serving the Portland Metro area for the last 40 years.

Michael was selfless making many sacrifices for his children and family. He is known for his kind heart and shrewd business skills. Anyone in his large family who needed help would find Iceman there immediately. His Love for his children was greatest of all and he worked hard to ensure that each of them would be successful and have a fair shake in this life. Often he said "If you aren't happy with who you are where you're at with what you have in life now, you'll never be happy". He made it clear in his last days "I'm Happy".

Iceman was preceded in death by his father Robert McGarry, and brother Edgar McGarry.

Survivors include his son's, Michael McGarry and Cory McGarry; daughter, Ciera "Princess"

McGarry; grandchildren, Chantel McGarry, Savannah McGarry, Rebekah McGarry, Collin McGarry, Aidan McGarry, Kyla McGarry, Brennan McGarry, Mother, Naomi McGarry, Siblings, Valerie Chapman, Robert McGarry, Dina Miller, Vashti Boone, Vanessa Dalton and many nephews, nieces, and cousins.

A private family memorial service is planned. A "Celebration Of Life," open to all who wish to honor his memory will be announced at a later date

Son, Brother, Dad, G-Pa, Uncle, Cuz,

"Gone, but not forgotten"

You are Loved, and will be missed!
