

Michael E. Woldridge

November 28, 1955 - February 4, 2014

In Loving Memory Michael E. Woldridge Michael E. Woldridge, aka "Snake" passed away at his home on February 4, 2014, from ALS. He was born November 28, 1955, to Don and Helen Woldridge. He graduated from Milwaukie High School and then served in the US Army from 1974-1978. He lived in Portland and Milwaukie before settling in Newberg in 1987. Mike married Mary (Priddy) on March 21, 1998, in Newberg, Oregon. He worked for The Oregonian newspaper for 29 years, and then for Asplundh Tree Service. Mike was an avid reader. He enjoyed riding his Harley along with camping and fishing with his son. Survivors include his wife; daughter Cassandra Woldridge of Dundee; sons Thomas Woldridge and Andrew Barnard, both of Newberg; brother Rick Woldridge of Portland; sister Tamara Mahan of Newberg; and three granddaughters. A celebration of life will be held on Friday, March 21, 2014, from 6-9 p.m. at Eden Gate in Newberg. Please RSVP to Mary Woldridge at hdsldy@yahoo.com before March 15.