

Mitchell W. Gamble

April 3, 1990 - September 26, 2023

Mitchell Wallace Gamble was born April 3, 1990 in Tarzana, CA in the San Fernando Valley and passed away on September 26, 2023 of heart failure. He lived most of his life in the Pacific Northwest in Portland, OR area and attended Newberg High School, Newberg, OR, Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, MN and the University of Oregon.

Mitchell was a quiet and fiercely private young man holding in high esteem the things in life that matter most - kindness, sincerity, a willingness to always try and do the right thing. He was curious, well read, and always learning. An avid firearms collector, Mitchell enjoyed target shooting, cooking, trivia and spending time with his family, a few close friends, and his dog, Vinny. He loved the Pacific Northwest, and he dreamed of one day having a small farm where he could care for his animals, especially older and special needs dogs.

Mitchell is survived by his mother; Jane Gamble Lake Oswego, OR, father; Victor Gamble, Lake Oswego, OR, brother; Garrett Gamble, Tigard, OR and sister; Shannon Gamble, Dallas, TX. He is also survived by Anne Guenther and Grace Iannotti, Maria Guenther-Ianotti and Angel Guenther-Ianotti of Woodland Hills, CA and sunny Sherman and Kim Costolupes, Wynn Sherman of Los Angeles, CA and Stuart Sherman, Tuscan, AZ.

“ Dearest Jane, Vic, Garrett and Shannon,
We did not know about Mitchell passing away! We are so incredibly sad for your loss. I know there is nothing we can say to ease your grief but want you to know how highly we regarded Mitchell. His sense of humor and intellect defined him. We enjoyed being around him! It's devastating his life was cut so short. It's impossible to imagine your sadness.
