“ My Nat Nat. Today, we honor you. But our memories, I'm thankful for. Your vivacious spirit will live on always. Thank you for being a best friend, a favorite person of mine. We've had so many laughs and meaningful moments together. Thankful we were able to lean on each other in tough times too. You are a solid, supportive and empowering friend. You will always have a special place in my heart. I will miss you dearly.

“ The entire Soucie/Carey clan sends our heartfelt condolences to Jessie and family. Ever since we moved to Portland in 1991, Natalie was a part of our lives one way or the other. I can't remember how many holiday and school events we shared with Ralph, Vicky, Nadia and Natalie but she always embraced us when we arrived with the most heartfelt hug and smile.

Her bubbling spirit always filled up a room. She played with tenderness as a child always sharing, hugging and glowing. (yet tough as nails LOL)

As she moved through her teenage years, she would pop in at the house and always find room for a hug and take a moment to recognize us as individuals. Never too rushed to leave without saying goodbye.

Seeing her grow as a mother was amazing. She faced all of life's challenges with grace and never forgot her roots.

Rest in peace.

Love, Ray, Ronnie, Liz, John and Sally

“ Natalie was so funny, so smart... and being around her made you feel that way, too. Her limitless beauty and zest for life... magnetic. My favorite memory of us include talking all things pregnancy (both for Denzel and Wesley) and sharing all of each others tattoos in “the box” at TJ’s. My life is changed for the better in knowing and loving and receiving that special love from Nat.
