“ My wife and I met Neil for the first time during one of the NHS Plant Sale a few years ago. He was very kind and helpful; he even helped us bringing the plants we purchased to our vehicle. Then we saw him all the time walking all over Newberg. We have an autistic son that loves to walk and make friends too. My twin daughters graduated from NHS in 2008. They knew him and said that he was a very nice and kind person. We are very sad and upset about Neil’s tragic death and for sure we are going to miss him walking around Newberg. I lost a son back in 1988 and his very early departure is still hurting. I would like very respectfully ask for your permission to request ODOT to name the future crosswalk to be built at the intersection of HWY 219 and Everest “Neil’s Crosswalk”. Please let me know.

“ Please accept our expression of sympathy for your entire family. We first met Neil when our girls, Kayla and Danielle attended day care at Shiree Powers home 21 years ago. We have watched him grow from an infant into a young man. We were so sad to hear of his passing. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. The Rolland Kerr Family
