

Noreen Adele Quanstrom

November 16, 1933 - October 17, 2014

In Loving Memory Noreen Adele Quanstrom Noreen Adele Quanstrom was born November 16, 1933 to Forrest and Bernice Erickson in Everett, WA. In 1951 she married Arne Mikkeltorg and they had three sons. In 1967 the family moved to the Dayton area where she became active in retail having owned and operated Lloyds Clothing in Downtown Newberg and was later employed by Ken's Jewelers for many years until her retirement. She belonged to the Chamber of Commerce and the Newberg Nazarene Church where she especially loved singing in the choir. She was also a hospice volunteer in the area. In 1999 she married Robert Quanstrom and they spent their early retirement years living in Newberg and traveling the country in their 5th wheel until finally settling in the Bend area. After Robert passed in 2009 she moved into Hummingbird Glen Adult Foster Care in Bend where she lived until her passing on October 17th. She is survived by her three sons, Brian and Elaine Mikkeltorg of Bend, OR, Delwin Mikkeltorg of Guinda CA and Kris Mikkeltorg of Silverdale WA, sisters Janet Hughes of Medford OR and Sandy Bonati of Colorado Springs CO. Noreen was the proud grandmother of 9 and had 15 great - grandchildren. A graveside service will be held at 1:00 PM Tuesday, October 28th at Valley View Memorial Mausoleum in Newberg. Donations, in lieu of flowers, can be made to Partners In Care Hospice, 2075 NE Wyatt Ct, Bend, Or 97701
