

Patricia Gene Harris (Prather)

August 4, 1926 - February 5, 2022

Patricia Gene Harris was born August 4, 1926 to Merlin and Hazel Prather in Silverton, Oregon. She passed away on February 5, 2022 in Newberg, Oregon following a sudden lung infection. She was 95 years old.

Patty, as her family called her, grew up in Silverton, Oregon and graduated from Silverton High School. At the age of twenty she married Marleau Harris of Prineville, Oregon. They made their first home in Monmouth, Oregon where Marleau could attend Oregon College of Education. In 1947, they started their family when Jeanne was born. The next three children, Richard, Barbara and Patrick (Rick) came along while living in Junction City, Oregon, where Marleau began his teaching and coaching career. In 1958, Marleau was hired for a new position and the family moved to Corvallis. Now that all four children were in school Patty could often be found tending to her beautiful flower garden, sewing clothes for the children or planning gatherings for friends and family. Lebanon, Oregon was their next move and is where again Patty poured her love into her home and garden while the last two children finished high school and left for college. It wasn't long before she began to have grandchildren appear at her door. Nothing made her happier

Patricia was preceded in death by her parents, husband Marleau, brother Kenneth, two sons, Richard and Rick, and grandson, Jeffrey Boyd. Survivors include daughters Jeanne Boyd of Newberg and Barbara Stensgard of Imperial, California and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Please leave a message of condolence for the family.
