

Patricia Noel Hass

May 21, 1932 - April 27, 2015

In Loving Memory Patricia Noel Hass Patricia Noel Hass was born the daughter of Audrey Hall (Lish) and Clarence R. Watson in Seattle, Washington on Saturday, May 21, 1932. She grew up in Seattle, attended schools there, and was married to LaVerne C. Hass on February 18, 1956. They made their first home in Hayward, California then, in 1964 moved to a farm near Blachly, Oregon. In May of 1968 they moved to Sherwood, living first on Ladd Hill Road, then in 1970 moved to their home on Scholls-Sherwood Road where they owned and operated Windmill Nursery for 37 years. They were members of Oregon Association of Nurserymen and well-liked and respected for their business practices and the beautiful plants they grew. In 2007 they sold their home and business property and moved to King City. Patty was a long-time member of St. Paul Lutheran Church where she was active in the Weds. Morning Bible Study. She was a part of Stonecroft Ministries in her community, serving on the planning team for Newberg and Sherwood Christian Women's Clubs for several years as well as participating in Stonecroft Bible Studies. Patty enjoyed sewing, crocheting, working jig-saw and puzzle books and dancing. After they moved to King City she volunteered at Deer Creek Elementary School and enjoyed working out at the gym. Family and friends, as well as being involved in Bible Studies, were always a top priority in her life. Patty has been in failing health the past year and on Monday, April 27, 2015, died at her home when she was 82 years, 11 months and 6 days of age. Surviving and left to honor her life are: Six children, Lawrence E. Hass and his wife, Kathleen, of Denver, Colorado, Christine L. McCullough and her husband, Alan, of Eugene, Rebecca D. Jensen and her husband, David, of Newberg, Keven J. Hass and his wife, Marianne, of Tigard, Cynthia Acott Thurman and her husband, Scott, of Vancouver, Washington and Julia A. Hass of Portland; one sister, Clarice Brunke of Des Moines, Washington; 15 Grandchildren; 6 Great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews, and those who have come to know and appreciate her. Preceding her in death were her husband, Vern, one grandson, Jesse Stephen Acott, her son-in-law, Stephen Acott and her brother, Merle Watson. Funeral services are Saturday, May 2, 2015, 10:00 a.m. at St. Paul Lutheran Church in Sherwood. Graveside service with interment follows at St. Paul Cemetery.
