

Richard "Dick" Bradley Anderson

June 20, 1933 - March 20, 2016

Richard Bradley Anderson, Sr.

Richard Anderson, 82, of King City, Oregon passed away at his home on March 20, 2016. He was born on June 20, 1933 in Dayton, Ohio to Harold and Rose Marie Small Anderson.

On May 5, 1956 he married Velma Jeane Davis at Holy Angels Church. They had three sons; Richard Bradley, Jr., Martin and Christopher (deceased). He was a proud veteran of the US Marine Corps. After many years in the construction business as a plumber he began a new career in building maintenance at Citizens Federal and Society/Key Banks. He was construction foreman for a Homearama Home. Key Bank sent him to Portland, Oregon in 1996, which soon became home. There he installed ATMs in Oregon, Washington and Alaska. He retired from Diebold in 2010 to devote more time to his woodworking and volunteering at the Evergreen Aviation Museum in McMinnville, OR. He was most proud of his part in the restoration of the Spruce Goose and other vintage aircraft.

Dick is survived by his wife Jeane; sons Brad and Martin; brothers, Tom, Terry and Michael; granddaughter Jessica Humphrey and Charlee as well as many special relatives and friends. Private services will be held in June at the coast. Memorial contributions may be made to any cat rescue, especially Animal Aid of Beaverton, OR or SICSA, Dayton, Ohio.
