“ I am sorry to learn there was a death in your family. The loss of a loved one is very painful. I'd like to share scripture that may bring comfort and hope to your family. Mark 5:35-43 reads in part...While Jesus was speaking, he overheard men telling an officer of the synagogue that his daughter had died. Upon hearing this, Jesus, Peter, James and John, the brother of James, went alone to the officer's home. When they arrived, Jesus went to the deceased child and told her to get up. Immediately, she got up. You see, Jehovah promises a resurrection of our loved ones. (Acts 24:15) We must have faith in this promise. To strengthen our faith in this promise, please also read Isaiah 55:11 and Isaiah 25:8.

“ Pop! You will be missed so much more than you will know, but that can only begin after I accept that you're gone and I cannot picture the world without you in it. My heart goes out to the other family members who loved you like I did and still do. It was later in my life that I learned what a treasure God had placed here for the rest of us and how important it is to capture those moments together. It supposed to be nice this week and I would give anything I have to go play golf with you one more time, share a burger and a shake - or maybe a dog from Roakes and talk on the way home. Precious and few were the moments we shared. May the Lord bless and keep you safe and preserve my memories of the times we shared and the eternal love held in my heart for being such an important part of my life. I Love You Dad!
