

Richard L. Rhodes

January 13, 1946 - November 27, 2012

OBITUARY INFORMATION: Richard L. Rhodes Richard L. Rhodes was born the son of Fred and Martha (Brown) Rhodes on Sunday, January 13, 1946 in Sandpoint, Idaho. Richard grew up and attended school in Hope, Idaho. His family moved to Eugene, Oregon where he attended High School. On July 2, 1966 he married Jeanie Spiller in Sandpoint, Idaho. Richard and Jeanie made their home in Oregon, residing in Creswell and Springfield before settling in the Dundee and Newberg area in 1969. He worked for Wellons, Inc. in Sherwood, Oregon for 30 plus years, starting as a Steel Fitter and working his way up to Plant Superintendent, until his retirement in 2005. He was a member of the Portland Pipe Fitters Association, National Rifle Association and a lifetime member of the North American Hunting Club. Richard was a skilled craftsman and an avid outdoorsman. He especially enjoyed hunting, fishing and spending time with family and friends. On Tuesday, November 27, 2012, Richard L. Rhodes died at his residence in Newberg, Oregon at the age of sixty-six. Surviving and left to honor his life are: His wife Jeanie; three daughters, Christy Knapp of West Linn, Laurie Dornan of Portland and Rhonda Priollaud of Salem; two brothers, Gordon Lessing of Portland and Robert Rhodes of Aloha; his sister Marsha Spade of Careywood, Idaho; four grandchildren and those who have come to know and appreciate him where he has lived and worked. His mother and father preceded him in death. His Funeral Service will be held Saturday, December 1, 2012 at 12:00 noon at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Newberg, Oregon with Bishop

Lucas officiating.