

Roma Lamoine Brewster

September 13, 2010

Roma Lamoine Brewster Roma Lamoine Brewster was born the daughter of William Edwin and Emma Louise (Knipfer) Brewster on Thursday, December 27, 1928. She grew up living in various places in the Pacific Northwest. Because her father was a gold miner, they moved to Boulder, Colorado where she attended high school. Roma moved to Pasadena, California and attended Pasadena Nazarene College where she met John. They were married on August 20, 1954. In 1960 they moved to McMinnville and then to the Dundee-Newberg area in 1968. John was a professor at George Fox College, now George Fox University, where she attended classes. Roma was a homemaker, enjoyed traveling and going out to eat. Highlights of her life were going on a Short Term Mission with YWAM where they spent five months in Hawaii and the Far East and the several years they attended Maranatha Church in Portland. Most recently they have attended New Life Assembly of God Church in Sherwood. On Sunday, September 12, 2010, Roma Brewster died at her home in Newberg when she was 81 years, 8 months and 15 days of age. Surviving and left to honor her life are: Her husband, John, of Newberg; two daughters, Beckie Cannaday and her husband, Wayne, and Rachel Brewster, all of Newberg; one brother, Bill Brewster and his wife, Ruth, of Central Point; three grandchildren, Amy, Joshua and Chris; five great-grandchildren, Mike, Alex, Tony, Alayna and Grace; and those who have come to know and appreciate her where she has lived and worked.
