“ Sara and Amanda have been so sweet and like family to us, since I can remember. When, I met Sandy, I knew why. She was truly an amazing person.

“ Sandy and I had fun times growing up together. I especially remember the sleepovers with her friends and she would welcome me. We giggled so much and played practical jokes on each other.

Sandy was a devoted mother and wife and a wonderful example of God's love. There was never a doubt where her heart was- she truly loved her family and had an unwavering faith. She had a big heart for animals, too. Her heart for cats was amazing. I miss my sister.

“ Oh Sandy! I wish as I had gotten older, I stayed closer, but the memories I have growing up! I befriended the twins in 1st grade and my name was Sara E (it will always be Sara E) I remember the huge mud hole/mud fight- boy we got in trouble for that! The peanut butter cookies. Sandy perming my hair. Being part of the kids pictures with Santa. Middle school the notes she would write when we were late to school (a block away). I will miss her smile, she had such a beautiful smile. Thank you Sandy for those memories and for being a wonderful person. You will be missed.

“ I was good friends with Sara and Amanda in high school and spent many weekends at their house. I have great memories of Sandy from that time. The girls birthday parties, taking us to movies, doing my nails, taking us toilet papering 🤔 and really just accepting us for the annoying teenage girls we were. As an adult I became her hairstylist which was no small feat. She was very particular and hardly ever happy but I think she loved me and I loved her! I know how important her family was to her, they were her everything and all I ever heard about. Them and the cats of course. My love and condolences to Bruce and all the kids. She will be deeply missed ❤️
