“ Loved my sister. As adults we did not see each other often, life took us in other directions. When we did visit we were loving and shared memories of family and growing up. She's now in God's hands and with other precious family in heaven. Always in my heart.

“ *We sat on top of eagles landing, watching the clouds and discussing Seven Arrows, still on the red path, may we walk together eternally
May your soul find the healing that eluded you in this world, love always,k*
