

Stanley R. Hill

June 12, 1952 - December 16, 2018

Stanley Robert Hill, of Dayton, Oregon, born on June 12, 1952 in Yakima, Washington, to the late Robert and Letha (Fisk) Hill, passed away at age 66, after a long illness, on December 16, 2018. Stan served in the Navy in the Vietnam War.

Stan was a marine electrician after leaving the Navy. He then pursued property management to accompany his hobby of building houses. Other hobbies include tinkering with tractors and inventing new machines. His creations include a cinder block moving machine and a wheelchair lift. Stan was a guy who believed that no matter how you feel, that the harder you work, the stronger you will be.

Stan was the loving husband, of 43 years, to Tandra (Smith) Hill. He was preceded in death by his sister, R. Joyce Hill. Stan is survived by his daughters, Shayna Hill, Angela (Michael) Ursetta, and Natalie (Joshua) Heath; sister, Grace Johnson-Dier; granddaughter, Katherine Heath; brother- and sister-in-law Ryan and Colleen Smith.

Memories and pictures can be shared at www.forevermissed.com/stan-hill Those who wish may donate in Stan's name to Crohn's and Colitis Foundation, OHSU Knight Cancer Institute, and National Veterans Foundation. A celebration of life will take place this summer after the completion of his new house.

Through this site, we invite you to share your thoughts and fond memories with Stan's family.

Tandra, please accept my sympathies. I received the news today about Stan. I will miss his easy going nature and laugh. He was one of the few guys in my life that I looked up to and enjoyed hanging around with. Don Smith
