He attended high school at Hargrave Military Academy in Chatham, Virginia, graduating in 2010. After briefly attending college at Cedarville University in Ohio, he moved home to Oregon. Steve lived first in Portland and then in Klamath Falls and Redmond, before returning to Portland three ago. He worked as a technician maintaining and repairing electronic and mechanical gaming machines. Steve enjoyed skiing, chess, and outdoor adventures. He is survived by his loving parents, grandfather, many aunts and uncles, and cousins.
