

Sue Anne Zimmerman

March 11, 1942 - April 26, 2022

Sue Anne Zimmerman, 80, of Newberg, Oregon (previously from Long Beach, California), died Tuesday, April 26, 2022, at Oregon Health Sciences University in Portland, Oregon. After a two month stay in the hospital battling multiple medical issues, she passed peacefully with her sister, Donna, by her side.

She was born March 11, 1942, to Edith (Christensen) and Robert Hamilton, in Long Beach, California. She lived in Long Beach until 2020 when she moved to Newberg, Oregon with her son, Steve, to be closer to her sister.

Sue graduated from Wilson High School in 1960 and worked at North American Rockwell (now Boeing) until she retired at age 55. In her retirement Sue found great joy volunteering in the emergency room at a local hospital in Long Beach where she enjoyed visiting with all the people who came in. Sue also loved living by the ocean, going for sight-seeing drives, having lunch at Don Jose's with her life-long friends, and swimming in her pool. She had an uncanny knack of meeting a person and knowing their whole life history in just a few minutes time.

Sue was predeceased by her husband, Ernest Zimmerman, and her brother, Robert Hamilton and is survived by her son, Steven Lakin; her sister, Donna Sires (Don Sires); and her niece and nephews Jade Rubick, Cody Rubick,

Caleb Sires, and Amelia (Mia) Sires Nelson and their spouses and children.
There will be a graveside service Monday, May 2 at 11:00 AM at Yamhill
Carlton Pioneer Memorial Cemetery, 6798 NE Gibson Rd., Yamhill, OR 97148.
