“ Suzanne was the kind of person who didn't just face challenges—she rolled up her sleeves and met them head-on. She believed in getting the job done right, with no shortcuts, and in putting in the time and care needed to truly hone a skill. Whether in her sewing projects or in the kitchen, her creativity always carried a spark of humor, a hidden detail that made her work uniquely hers. She loved exploring new talents and sharing them with others. Quick to laugh and even quicker to find the bright side, she never lingered in discouragement but kept moving forward with quiet determination, all the while encouraging others to do the same. Her hands created beautiful things, but it was her spirit—resilient, joyful, and generous—that left the most lasting impression. Those who knew her will carry her example forward, inspired to work hard, laugh often, and savor life's flavors.

“ Suzanne was such a lovely, kind soul, and I feel truly lucky to have known her.

We met because she wanted to learn about websites. So she took over the sewing guild website with me as her back up. Eventually she didn't need my help so we would meet up just to talk—about sewing and knitting and anything else that came up.

My very deepest sympathies.

“ Suzanne I did not know as much as Willie - but IF EVER there was a personality that you could immediately identify as a very special person, it is Suzanne, and that was due to the deep respect, admiration and friendship that Willie always presented. It might be a bit easy for some to not complement wife's when in a group of guys, but NOT the case here. One of the things I have admired about Willie ( along with being a GREAT pilot ) is his unwavering commitment to Suzannes well being. In this day and age it has been so refreshing to see a marriage that - above all - was mutually appreciated.

John 16:22 'Therefore you have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away'
