“ To All Who Knew and Loved Her, She does sound like a truly special and rare person that was and is loved by all that knew her. I know how hard it is to lose someone we love so much. My own father passed away just a few short years ago and sometimes it seems like it was just yesterday. I would like to share a scripture with you that helped me in my time of grief, it is 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 where it refers to God as “the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God.” And one of the best is a promise that God will do away with death forever and it is found in Revelation 21:4 where it says “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” With a promise like that and other ones of a resurrection for everyone to right here on earth with us, it makes the grief a little easier to bear. I would be more than happy to share those with you, if you would like or you can also go to jw.org and type "resurrection" into the search box and get the information on your own. Please except my sincerest condolences,
