Through the years she had many professions, but the greatest of them all was being a caregiver to her mother.

Terri devoted all her time, love, and energy to her family and friends. She was a loving daughter, mother, and friend.

Terri is survived by her 3 daughters Jennifer, Codi, Molly, and bonus daughter Sonya. Her 8 grandchildren and siblings Ross Hacker, Doug Hacker, Sharon Andrews, and Tracy Hacker. Preceded in death by her parents Ross Hacker Sr., Thelma Smith, Phyllis Hacker, and Loyal Smith.

The last few years of Terri's life were never shy of troubles but she encountered every obstacle with bravery and always put her family above all else. Those who were lucky enough to know Terri know the heartbreak that comes with this message.
