

Thomas "Doug" Cowley

January 30, 1921 - October 12, 2010

Thomas Douglas Cowley was born the son of Thomas and Emily (Eales) Cowley on Sunday, January 30, 1921 in Ocean Park, Washington. Doug grew up and went to school in Newberg, graduating from Newberg High School. He attended George Fox College and then served in the U.S. Navy. After being honorably discharged from the Navy, Doug attended the University of Oregon and received his degree in Architectural Design. In 1970, Doug married Sharon Lovelace in Rose Valley, Washington. They made their home in Portland, and Doug worked for the City of Portland and then went to work for Multnomah County Zoning, retiring in 1980. Doug was a member of the Reedwood Friends Church for many years. He was an avid gardener and had a hobby of printing. He was a member of the Hollywood Kiwanis Club. He also enjoyed driving. Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of choice c/o Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, 207 Villa Rd., Newberg, OR 97132. On Tuesday, October 12, 2010, Thomas Douglas Cowley died at Providence Medical Center when he was eighty-nine years, eight months and twelve days of age. Surviving and left to honor his life are: his wife Sharon of Portland; two daughters, Kimberle Robertson of Portland and Sharon Moynihan of Corvallis; his son Craig of Portland; eight grandchildren, and those who have come to know and appreciate him where he has lived and worked. His Memorial Service will be Saturday, October 16, at 4:00 p.m. in Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home, with Reverend Gerald Dillon officiating.
