

Turid Olsen

February 14, 1936 - January 17, 2020

Turid grew up in Norway, finding the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at the age of 15. She faithfully served a mission there at 19.

She immigrated to America and settled in Southern California where she married O. William Olsen in the Los Angeles Temple on Nov. 20, 1959. They raised their six children throughout California. For the last 28 years they have enjoyed the peace and beauty of Newberg.

Fond memories of life, love and service are instilled in all who knew Turid.

Her beautiful legacy lives on through her husband O. William Olsen; six children: Debbie, Scott, Lisa, Paul, Deanna, and Phil; fourteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

*Beautiful tribute for my favorite Tanta Turid.
I remember Tunta Turid and Uncle Bill when they were first engaged. I was a little girl and felt so much love from them. They have been my favorite Aunt and Uncle.
We wish we could be there with your family at this time. I love you both so very much. John and I are serving as Military Relations missionaries here in Japan at the Yokota Air Base.
We have so many fond memories of Tunta Turid. She was the one that took us to the airport when we were going to our first duty station to Hawaii.
Growing up we vacationed to California every year to visit Uncle Bill and Tunta Turid it was so much fun and I love it when each of their children were born.
It was so nice when we were stationed in California and we were able to visit often. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time and I am sending hugs and kisses to you Uncle Bill, Debbie, Scott, Lisa, Paul, Phil, Deanna and your families.
Love always, Lisbeth and John*

“ Turid was like a grandma to my family and I. Every May Day my siblings and I would walk our red wagon down to the house, full of flowers to leave on the doorstep. With the driveway being as long as it was, our plan was to make it to the water shed and hide until they got the flowers. It wasn't until years later that Turid confessed she took her time on purpose to give us a chance to hide and then loved watching us run back up the hill thinking we had pulled it off! We will miss her and her sweet smile and the way she could make everyone feel loved. I took these photographs of Turid on a trip back to Oregon in 2014 when my husband and i stopped in for lunch and a visit.

“ A few years back on an unusually snowy day for Oregon I was driving into the neighborhood when I came across Turi walking in the opposite direction. I stopped and asked if she needed a ride somewhere? She said she was headed to the store and with her wonderful smile she added “oh this is nothing.” “When I was a little girl I would walk everywhere in snow much worse than this.” She had a spirit and strength that made her a very special lady.

I think I will always have Turid's voice in my head. I could hear her saying the words you wrote. 😊
