

Veronica Marie Nufer

December 7, 1967 - November 24, 2021

Veronica Marie Nufer was born on December 7th, 1967 in Lebanon, Oregon and passed away on November 24th, 2021 in Portland, Oregon. She grew up in and around Beaverton, Oregon. At 16, she got a job and paid for her own schooling at Faith Bible High School until she graduated. After high school, she took a job as a cabinet maker and served for a short time as a Navy corpsman before she moved to Alaska. There, she worked at OSI where she met her husband and lifelong love, Bob Nufer. Within a few short years they had two kids, Robert and Brandon. They would adopt Dakota, originally her great nephew, in 2007. Despite the challenge of raising two infants, Veronica earned an associate's degree from the University of Alaska with her focus set on drama.

In 1998, she and her family moved to her Uncle Gary and Aunt Miriam LaRue's farm in Yamhill, Oregon which became her forever home. Gary and Miriam shared their vision to start a business on the farm, and together they founded Misty Mountain Mushrooms which remains in operation today. Eventually, she was able to play a smaller role in the business and organized and directed plays for various churches, schools, and events. She also filmed many of her children's school events and joined the local cable community as a camera operator. Eventually, she was asked to take over as host of the political show News and Views. She later changed the name to Eleventh Hour Politics and opened a gift shop named Eleventh Hour Productions and Gift

Shoppe that doubled as her own studio. She also sold mushrooms and unique tea blends she developed at the McMinnville and Newberg farmer's markets for several years. In addition, she also loved hiking, biking, exploring nature, and especially foraging for mushrooms in the forest with her husband. She remained active in all these activities throughout her life and was well known in the community when she passed.

She was preceded in death by her father Victor Lidgren, mother Janis Lane, sister Kelly Fawn, and Uncle Gary Larue. She is survived by her husband Bob, sons Robert, Brandon and Dakota, her grandson David, her half-sisters Sarita Lemons and Ella Folsom, her Aunt Miriam, her dog Kenai, and several cousins, nephews, and nieces, all of whom she loved dearly.

A memorial service will be held for her at RockPoint Community Church in Newberg, Oregon on December 11th at 1:00pm. If you can not attend in person, you can watch the service via live stream at <https://fb.me/e/2LSR6rSh>

“ My condolences to Bob and kids. I was so surprised and saddened to hear of Ronnie’s passing. It’s still hard to process. We had so much fun as teenagers and young adults. I regret losing touch. ”

“ There were a couple of fun summers when the girls came and Dad took us to sandy beach and we played and dad tried to get us to fish with him. We had a great time and a nice memory when Ronnie , Kelly and the kids came to visit us in Wyoming!! They were always like my true sisters! This was my last text from her on October 28rh. 2021. ”

So funny. I just thought of you over the weekend and was thinking I haven't heard from you in awhile. Thanks for staying in touch. Happy for you and your Florida trip. Our minds and energy has been on improving our business...things going good, tiring and looking forward to a vacation in the future!.”

I am so shocked that this happened. It's so sad! I will miss her. May God bless all her family!

“ Veronica and I met in 1985 at Faith Bible Christian School, and became great friends. I have so many wonderful, happy memories of her, and we shared many good times together. She had a big smile and an even bigger heart - and she had a heart for God. She loved God, family, friends and just about everyone else she ever met! I always admired her kind hearted nature, and how thoughtful and caring she was. I also loved her sense of humor! She and I had many, many laughs together and could always be silly/goofy around each other. I'm still shocked and saddened by her passing and find it hard to believe she's gone. I know she's with God now and is at peace with Him. I'll always love you and miss you, Veronica...

“ I remember when Veronica was born. As a little girl she was often pensive. I always wondered what she was thinking. Never in a million years would I have thought we'd be business partners one day. She was always positive. Always sure that, no matter what the situation God would make a way. She loved her family fiercely and prayed for them diligently. I don't think I know anyone who was more committed to Christ than she was. I know she is rejoicing with her Lord and probably interviewing all the Saints who she is asking a million questions! I will miss her so much! Heaven's gain our huge loss.
