

Virginia Lee Livengood

April 10, 1950 - March 8, 2010

In Memory Of Virginia Lee Livengood Virginia Lee Livengood was born the daughter of Elvis and Beatrice (Andrews) Livengood on Monday, April 10, 1950 in Salem, Oregon. Virginia was raised and attended school in Salem where she graduated from high school. From there, she attended Merrit Davis Business College in Salem, and then went to work for an auto insurance company in Portland. Virginia has lived in Portland the past ten years, was a member of the Central Bible Church there. She enjoyed traveling in the United States and abroad and spending time with her family. Virginia died unexpectedly after having surgery. On Monday, March 8, 2010 Virginia Livengood died at Providence Hospital in Portland when she was fifty-nine years, 10 months and 26 days of age. Surviving and left to honor her life are: her daughter Vicky Phillips Pelefoti of Portland; her son, Greg Phillips of Portland; two brothers, Les and John Livengood, both of Salem; three grandchildren; and those who have come to know and appreciate her where she has lived and worked. Her Memorial Service will be Saturday, March 20, at 2:00 p.m. in Attrell's Newberg Funeral Chapel, a Golden Rule Funeral Home, with Clint Livengood officiating. A Committal Service will follow at Dundee Pioneer Cemetery, Dundee. Online condolences may be made at www.attrells.com
