“ I did not know this wonderful lady had left us. I adored her! She was a dental patient where I worked as an assistant. I loved chatting with her and hearing about her adventures. She lived life to its fullest. She was always happy and excited about each day. She was such an example to me about how we should live. When she had an appointment, I looked forward to seeing her and never wanted to leave her room. She was so fun to chat with. I will miss this dear lady.
