Yvonne, very proud of her Aramean descent, was born in Bethlehem to Jamil and Mary Nimeh on August 23rd, 1939. A professional seamstress, Yvonne worked at various retail department stores, including Nordstrom, Meier and Frank, Mario's, and Gottschalks, before opening her own business, "Sew it Seams Alterations," in Tigard, OR in 1996 until 2004. Upon her retirement in 2004, Yvonne shared her various artistic talents with people around her in the form of baking bread, cakes, and pastries; painting vases, canvases, and pillowcases; playing the violin and keyboard; and growing beautiful flowers and vegetables in her garden. Yvonne's love of God was evident in everything she did, and she devoted her life to sharing that love with others.

She is also survived by six grandchildren Joseph, Brian (Jessica), Gregory, Samir (Christine), Sandra, Daniel, and two great-granddaughters Elona, and Elaria . Yvonne leaves behind six siblings: Rosine Mailloux of Windsor, Ontario; Elias (Ruth) Nimeh of San Luis Obispo, CA; Saliba (Margaret) Nimeh of Windsor, Ontario; Farid Nimeh (Denmark); Samira Alexander of Temecula, CA; and Mike Nimeh of Kingston, Ontario.
